What to expect

“Simply an amazing way to experience the warmth, hospitality & treasures of Ireland”

Carol Collis, West Sussex, England (Ireland Tour, 2018)

This route offers a wonderful introduction to the magnificent island of Ireland. You will meet Irish Whiskey experts, have tastings of fine and rare whiskies, eat the region’s finest foods and enjoy the warmth of the local people. We also have some of the finest scenery in the world so if you love your whiskey, food and fun in an idyllic setting, this has got it all.

Top Californian winemaker Lindsay Hoopes will be co-hosting on this trip and providing her unique insight, having studied at Trinity College Dublin.

Why Ireland with Iberian Wine Tours?

This is a 7 night trip which offers a chance for us to showcase our own lands, where we have lived (most of) our lives. We have first-hand knowledge of the places we visit and access to the insider tales of established professionals and friends and family along the road. There is a stunning range of styles of whiskey, countryside, architecture and cuisine and across it all a sense of friendliness and warmth that is very hard to find elsewhere in the world. Fun is guaranteed.

Trip Itinerary

Day 1. Sun 24 July Meet Dublin and head north to visit the famed neolithic site at Knowth. Heading to nearby Slane Castle, situated on the River Boyne, close to the famous battle site (1690). They have recently started to produce whiskey too, so we have tasting and lunch. Crossing into Northern Ireland (UK) we check into Belfast's top 5* hotel, The Merchant for 3 nights. Light supper at the hotel.

Day 2. Mon 25 July We visit the UNESCO World Heritage site, the Giant's Causeway, before having lunch at the old coaching inn at Bushmills. After lunch go to the world famous Bushmills Distillery, where we are treated to a private tasting and a dram from the cask. Heading back to Belfast the evening is free.

Day 3. Tues 26 July Free morning in Belfast (maybe for a black taxi ride around the troubled parts of the city or a visit to Titanic Belfast) before afternoon tasting at top artisan producers, Shortcross Gin. On to a bread making demo with a traditional baker on the shores of Strangford Lough where we make local breads and taste local produce before a private home-cooked dinner and Irish music and dancing.

Day 4. Wed 27 July Morning visit to the picturesque Tullamore Dew Distillery with tour and tasting before lunch. On to Galway to check in at Park House Hotel before dinner at the wonderful Ard Bia restaurant in the city.

Day 5. Thur 28 July Morning foodie tour of Galway city to enjoy some local artisan produce at some of the city's most traditional eateries. Heading south stopping for break at Adare before check in to the world famous Ballymaloe Country House in County Cork for 2 nights. Private dinner in the hotel accompanied by Lindsay Hoopes' own special wines.

Day 6. Fri 29 July Morning visit to Midleton Distillery, where some of Ireland's best quality and most famous whiskies are produced for a premium tasting. Light lunch at the distillery. Onto Ballymaloe Cookery School for a cookery class at the world famous venue. Free evening.

Day 7. Sat 30 July Head north to Dublin for check in at the Brooks Hotel for one night. Historical and literary tour of Dublin led by a Trinity College professor, including a tour of the university itself. Tour of the Dail (Irish Parliament) in the company of Denis Naughten, an Independent TD, before Michelin dinner in Ireland's top restaurant Chapter One.

Day 8. Sun 31 July After breakfast, end of tour.
